OCTOBER 2010

CRANBERRY FESTIVAL

Saturday, October 9

We have not been to the very popular Cranberry festival for a couple of years and several people have asked for it this year. We will be having lunch at the Historical Tokeland Hotel and then on to the festival for all of the goodies made from cranberries. Price: $39.00 includes Transportation, Lunch, and viewing the cranberries and other fun stuff.

PICASSO EXHIBIT

Saturday, October 16– The Seattle Art Museum is excited to present a landmark exhibition of the work of Pablo Picasso (1881 – 1973). The exhibition will present iconic works from virtually every phase of Picasso’s legendary career. The exhibition will feature more than 150 paintings, sculptures, drawings, prints and photographs. This unprecedented opportunity is possible at this time because the “Musee National Picasso” in Paris (the largest & most important repository of the artist’s work in the world) has recently closed for renovations allowing a global tour of this full-scale survey to travel for the first and, very likely, the only time. This will be the first major survey of the long and productive career of Pablo Picasso to ever be seen in the Northwest. Price $47.00 includes Transportation and Admissions. Lunch is on your own.

NOVEMBER 2010

MYSTERY TRIP

Sunday, October 17

This is absolutely the best thing for a Mystery Trip. We will have a great mystery without having to do anything. The only clue I can give you is: You will be seeing one of the true "Greats" when it comes to Mysteries.

TACOMA HOLIDAY GIFT SHOW

Thursday, October 21— This is one of the best and largest holiday gift shows on the west coast, featuring over 600 booths. Get a jump on the holidays. You'll find everything for your home, thousands of gift ideas and exciting gourmet foods to provide something different for your special occasions. An exciting entertainment program with many "new acts" located on the main arena stage in the east corner. There will be a Cooking Demonstration by local chefs and instructors.

Visit the "Artist Village", it has been expanded to include more artisans. Featuring sculptors, painters, wood carvers and more. Visit the all new "Festival Food" Court on the south east side of the main arena. The Tacoma Dome specialty chefs prepare each day's menu full of healthy quality entrees along with those foods we all crave and love.. It is always a fun trip. You will not be disappointed and you will have a great time. Price: $39.00 includes Transportation, and Admission. Lunch is on your own.

TRAIN TRIP TO PORTLAND

Wednesday, November 3

Gonna take a sentimental journey...at least we hope it will be sentimental. What we do know is that it will be fun! We'll take a train to Portland, tour the Cordon Bleu Culinary Institute, lunch in their restaurant and, on the way back to the train station, we'll make a special stop at Powell's City of Books.

Price: $57.00 includes Train Fare and Lunch.

VETERANS DAY MUSEUM

Thursday, November 11

The Mission of this museum is to honor and perpetuate the memory of the service men and women who have served in our nation's armed forces down through the history of our country during peacetime or war. The museum first opened up in 1997 at a storefront and in 2005 it opened its new facility visible from Interstate 5, and features a 9,000 square foot main gallery with 85 display cases and hundreds of displays honoring our veterans. So, that is what we will be doing today. After touring the museum, we will dine out at one of the local fine restaurants.

Price: $37 includes Transportation, Admission into the museum and lunch.

CASINO TRIP—LUCKY EAGLE

Monday, November 15

We are still looking for The Big Winner...will it be you this month? Come along and try your luck.

Price: $21 and lunch on your own (there is a $4.99 buffet on Mondays)

SPY TRIP: KENT SENIOR CENTER

Thursday, November 18

That’s right folks, we have brought back the Spy Trip, by popular demand! For those of you that don’t know about these trips, this is our opportunity to visit some of the other senior centers in the area, and we “spy” on their programs, including their lunch program, their activities, and anything else to do with the senior center. We will be given a tour, and then will sit down and meet with some of the folks for a friendly lunch. This particular trip will be interesting for another reason: The same architectural company that will be building the addition at the Lacey Senior Center did so at the Kent Senior Center a couple years ago. This is an opportunity to “whet” our appetite for what’s to come in Lacey.

Price: $29/Members, $32/Non-members
Includes Transportation and lunch. Bring a few dollars for a special trip on the way back.

NOVEMBER MYSTERY TRIP

Tuesday, November 30

Don’t you just LOVE gingerbread? It has such a unique smell and what a great way to start the holiday season! Finger-lickin’ good! A special stop in Olympia and then off we go! What a day!

Price: $29/Members, $32/Non-members
Includes Transportation and Brunch

DECEMBER 2010

FANTASY LIGHTS AT SPANAWAY PARK

Wednesday, December 8

Truly a light show extravaganza! Nearly 300 elaborate displays, from bears to penguins to reindeer leaping over the bus. You’ll stay warm and dry with this drive-through tour. We’ll start with lunch and then, be prepared—these light displays will knock your socks off!

Price: $34 includes transportation, meal and spare socks.

ANNIE—A PRODUCTION OF THE TACOMA LITTLE THEATER

Sunday, December 12

From the Tacoma Little Theatre Website: “Leaping Lizards! Just in time for Christmas! The popular comic strip heroine takes center stage in one of the world’s best-loved musicals. “Annie” is a spunky Depression-era orphan determined to find her parents, who abandoned her years ago on the doorstep of a New York City orphanage run by the cruel, embittered Miss Hannigan. In adventure after fun-filled adventure, Annie foils Miss Hannigan’s evil machinations, befriends President Franklin Delano Roosevelt and finds a new family and home in billionaire Oliver Warbucks, his personal secretary Grace Farrell and a lovable mutt named Sandy.

Price: $59 includes Transportation, Admission to the musical, and lunch.
